Thank you for your generous contribution to the Northern NJ Archives Committee of Alcoholics Anonymous. Contributions such as yours have made it possible for us to continue in our efforts to have a comprehensive history of our Fellowship.

We are always in the process of collating and processing materials so it may be some time before your contribution is incorporated into our collected works.

Please know that we are most grateful for your contribution and we will handle it with loving and professional care. We are sure that you understand that this is a permanent contribution and that you are confident we will make the best possible use of it.

We encourage you to visit the Archives anytime. We think you will feel as many others have that our history is alive and strengthening the Fellowship.
